

OUR PRAYERS

In the Anglican Communion at the end of Refugee Week we give thanks for the varieties of culture, talents and ethnicities embodied in our city, and we pray for all those who welcome others into our community.

In Burundi we pray for those seeking the way of violence that they would instead seek reconciliation between all parties.

In our diocese on International Widows' Day we pray for an end to social stigmatisation and economic deprivation of widows. We hold to you those millions of widows and their dependents worldwide facing poverty and injustice.

In our parish we pray for all who live in Ingram Road, Karlingford Close and Innis Road and for the residents and staff of Aylesdene Court.

In our CTEC Prayer Cycle we pray for the members of St Mary Magdalen Church and their minister, Rev'd Dwayne Engh.

Those in need:
In hospital:

All those who are ill / recovering from surgery / awaiting results of recent medical tests / the housebound, of whom we name today:
Monica Harrison, Ben Spriggs, Mary Owen and Brenda Hooper.

We commemorate the departed: Maurice Arnett & Eileen Woodhouse

In Annual Remembrance:

Muriel Knighton, Lilian Welch, Emma Hearn, Ursula Goodwin,
Gwendoline Metcalf, Ida Carlton and Bert Freeman.

*The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.
I say to myself, "The Lord is my portion, therefore I will wait for him".
Lamentations 3:22-24*

If you would like someone mentioned in the Weekly Sick List, please email Ian Leitch on ianleitch094@btinternet.com. If you would like a name placed on the Prayer Chain (which can be confidential), please speak to Christine O'Brien or email her at prayerchstb@gmail.com.

Please note the Order of Service, Weekly Leaflet and hymns are available in large print at the back of church each week. We have a loop system in church and you should switch to 'T' position for best reception.

Instructions for taking Communion

Please wait for the sides-person (who gave you your hymn book) to direct you to the altar rail. If you wish to take communion in your seat please let a sides-person or duty warden know, if possible before the service starts.

6.30 PM REFUGE SERVICE St Mary Magdalen Church
Join Christians from St Barbara's and other churches for a service of contemplative, contemporary worship.

Collect for First Sunday after Trinity:

O God, the strength of all those who put their trust in you, mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace, that in the keeping of your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Prayer Breakfast: On Saturday 6th July we are hosting the CTEC Prayer Breakfast at 8am. If you are able to help prepare the breakfast or would like further details, please speak with Marjorie Leitch. Of course, you will always be welcome at the Prayer Breakfast – even if you don't help prepare it.

Deanery Videos: Each of the 11 deaneries in Coventry diocese has made a 3-minute video about the life of the Church in its area. Each is available at <http://www.dioceseofcoventry.org/DeaneryVideos>. Also, all 11 videos have been combined into a single film called "Generous Relationships". It gives us a chance to see how some of the money that we donate to other parishes and deaneries is being used to spread the Good News and give glory to God.

To contact the Vicar, Rev'd Tulo Raistrick, please phone 024 7501 7889 (preferably not Mondays) or email tulo@raistricks.com

NOTICES

New Daily Reflection Series. The new daily reflection series has already started – but it's not too late to join in. Following on from reading Luke's gospel during Lent, and our recent sermon series, we will be reading and reflecting on the Book of Acts. If you received the Luke daily reflections by email, you will automatically be sent the new series (just let Tulo know if you don't want to receive it). If you did not, and would like to receive the Acts series, then please email Tulo at tulo@raistricks.com. Paper copies will be available for those who prefer that. Do join us for what will be a wonderful journey of discovery through the life of the early church.

Minor Decoration and Renewal: A variety of small jobs need attention around the church. Keith Wright has composed a description of 8 (mainly re-painting) jobs that require attention this summer. The list was included as an insert with the W/L last week, and copies are available at the back of the church. Please look at the list carefully and consider whether you could help with any of these jobs. Any one can be tackled at a time of your own choosing – either alone or with others. Anyone who has done any painting around their home should be equipped to help on these small jobs. All reasonable costs will be reimbursed. If you can help, please speak with Keith Wright.

St Barbara's Book Group: Like reading a good book and chatting about it? Then the Book Group may be for you. Every couple of months members of the Group agree a book to read and then meet to share their opinions of the book. Their choice of books is very varied, embracing both classic and modern novels and ranging to some unusual books – a selection to suit all tastes. The next meeting is on Tuesday (27th June). For further details please contact Alison Manning on 07960042537 or by email at alisonsaturna@gmail.com.

New Archdeacon Missioner appointed: The Bishop of Coventry has appointed the Reverend Barry Dugmore as Archdeacon Missioner of the Diocese of Coventry.

Information for inclusion in the WL should be sent in writing to Ian Leitch (email: ianleitch094@btinternet.com or 94, Earlsdon Avenue South) before the copy deadline of 6pm on Wednesday.
