

OUR PRAYERS

In the Anglican Communion we give thanks for the Church of North India as it implements its programme of environmental responsibility and the safe management of waste.

In Burundi we pray for those seeking the way of violence that they would instead seek reconciliation between all parties.

In our diocese we give thanks for all healthcare staff who work in our local community, our GP and dental surgeries and clinics, our community hospitals and those who work in the field of mental healthcare.

In our parish we pray for all who live in Stoneleigh Avenue & Styvechale Road and for the residents and staff of Melbourne House.

In our CTEC Prayer Cycle we pray for the members of St Mary Magdalen Church and their minister, Rev'd Dwayne Engh.

Those in need:

In hospital: Maureen Shankster and Diana Thomas

All those who are ill / recovering from surgery / awaiting results of recent medical tests / the housebound, of whom we name today:

Dorothy Hope, Harry Johnson, John Montgomery and Gay Stopher.

We commemorate the departed: Peter Wheeler, Jeff Nightingale

In Annual Remembrance:

Bert Welch, Clara Allmark, Jean Cooper, Audrey McCutcheon, Dorothy Cope, Elsie Fielding, Phillipa Hartley and Ivor Cooper

Into your strong hands, our Father, I commend this day, my soul and body, my home and family, my friends and neighbours, and all who specially need your help. Grant to each of us your all-sufficient grace, and keep us in peace and safety. Douglas Horsefield

Spiritual Formation Course 2019-20: Discover ancient resources that have sustained Christians across the world over the past 2000 years. Bishop Stephen Cottrell, Bishop of Chelmsford wrote: "If I could begin in ministry again, I would focus much more on helping people learn to pray." Archbishop Justin Welby, when asked what the number one priority of the local church must be, replied "Spirituality". If you are looking for ways to grow deeper in God, this course could be the next step for you. For more information please see the attached brochure. The course starts on Thursday 19 September. To reserve your space, please send an email to passionatespirituality@live.co.uk

Coventry Cathedral Pet Service – 21st September: Everyone is invited to a service of thanksgiving and blessing of the animals. It will take place on 21 September at 2pm in the Cathedral Ruins and all pets are welcome. There is plenty of space in the ruins, but please bring your pet safely contained or controlled to minimise any potential distress. You can bring a photo if you prefer. Animal-loving clergy will lead a short service of thanksgiving followed by individual blessings for each animal.

NOTICES

Service of Thanksgiving for Jeff Nightingale: A service of thanksgiving for Jeff Nightingale will be held at St Barbara's at 11.30am on Friday 27th September. The family would be very pleased if you are able to come. They request no flowers, but there will be the opportunity to make a donation to the charity "Send a Cow" and to Myton Hospice.

Heritage at St Mary Magdalen: As part of the Heritage Week, St Mary Magdalen are hosting an exhibition of pictures by George Wagstaff from Friday 20th to Sunday 29th September. The official opening by the artist is on Saturday 21st at 6pm. The church also invites you to an organ recital by Tim Campain at 2pm of Saturday 21st September. All welcome.

Father Michael Brandon's leaving event. All Soul's Parish would like to warmly welcome all members of CTEC to the leaving celebration of Father Michael and Carol. Our parish is indebted to Father Michael who over the last 14 years has developed so many different aspects of parish life, reaching out to young families, students, the elderly and housebound, the sick and those facing death, including them all in the journey of faith we undertake together. He is committed in his work to promote Christian unity. He has been a regular supporter of the Prayer Breakfasts and CTEC services. He has been enthusiastic in developing links with the Muslim community. We wish him well in his ministry in Cornwall. The celebration on 22 September will begin with a farewell Mass at 11.15, and following that, at about 12.30 there will be a hot buffet in the parish garden. We hope you will be able join us on that day in our farewell to Fr Michael and Carol. If you would like to have a seat reserved at the service, please let Paola (paola.casagrande@gmail.com), Chair of the PPC, know before the 16th September.

Facebook Pages Training: The diocese is hosting a free social media training session focusing on Facebook Pages on Wednesday 2nd October from 2pm to 4pm at the diocesan offices (1 Hill Top, CV1 5AB). The training session will look at; what to post on Facebook, scheduling posts, Facebook adverts, creating simple graphics, responding to negative posts and safeguarding. For tickets for the training please follow the link at www.eventbrite.com/e/facebook-pages-training-tickets-68590270345
