

OUR PRAYERS

In the Anglican Communion we give thanks as we remember those who have died in wars throughout the world, we pray for those who are living with war and its effects today and for those who work for peace.

We pray for those countries where peace and justice are threatened and diminished, where those who would seek to live the values of your dawning kingdom are persecuted, and where violence and fear control the hearts and minds of citizens and subjects.

In our diocese during Interfaith Week we pray for all those who seek to build good relationships and working partnerships between people of different faiths.

In our parish we pray for all who live in Belvedere Road & Berkeley Road and for the residents and staff of St. Andrew's House.

In our CTEC Prayer Cycle we pray for the members of All Souls' Church, for their priest, Father Paul Birch, and for their deacon, Paul Rabvukwa.

Those in need:

In hospital:

We pray for all in our church family who are ill or housebound, recovering from surgery or awaiting results of recent medical tests.

We commemorate the departed: Don Driver

In Annual Remembrance:

Linley Brice, Gwen Ball, Timothy Payne,
Lizzie Chambers, Constance Elliott and Frank Oliver.

We remember all who have made sacrifices for the good of others. We also give thanks for the ending of conflicts and the coming of peace. May God bless all peacemakers and help all nations and communities to be tolerant and understanding of one another, so that wars and conflicts may cease throughout the world.

If you would like someone mentioned in the Weekly Sick List, please email Ian Leitch on ianleitch094@btinternet.com. If you would like a name placed on the Prayer Chain (which can be confidential), please speak to Christine O'Brien or email her at prayerchstb@gmail.com.
